BLOOM CALLS FOR SHAKEUP

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) -Pennsylvania Republicans must reorganize their Philadelphia organization to reverse their losing trend of the past several years, GOP State Chairman George I. Bloom says.

If Republicans are to win future elections, he told a meeting of GOP chairmen from 12 northeast counties Wednesday night, they must organize "the big city wards with the same zeal and dedication we display in fighting to control a county courthouse which represents a few thousand votes."

The state chairman said this emphasis on the big cities should apply all over the nation, but he stressed particularly Philadelphia. Rloom indicated dissatisfaction with the independent role that city's party leaders have in the statewide organizational scheme. NEEDS AUTHORITY

The state chairman, Bloom said, must assume responsibility for what happens to his party, "but he must have equal authority to correct it."

The Republican Party's strength in Philadelphia has steadily declined in the past decade. Once a GOP bastion, its voters turned over city hall to the Democrats in

The decade-long swing to the Democrats was climaxed in last week's presidential election when it turned in a 326,000-vote margin for Sen. John F. Kennedy, enough to offset the GOP majority in several other counties.

FACTIONAL FIGHTS

The decade also has been marked by a series of factional fights among the city's GOP lead-

Whether Bloom planned to make an affirmative move into the organization there was not clear, but he said:

"State chairmen in Pennsylvania have been clothed with little or no authority for political activity in Philadelphia, but have been permitted to shoulder responsibility for its shortcomings,

CITES LABOR'S ROLES

"The concepts of political leadership in Philadelphia have been autonomous and dedicated to preserving a super-centralized system of city control. They have hallowed observance of practices that should have gone out long ago."

Republicans, Bloom said, must recruit ward leaders "as carefully as we select county chairmen" because "these ward leaders are responsible for far greater numbers of voters than are county chairmen."

Bloom said Democrats are helped greatly in the big cities by "well-staffed and well-financed" labor organizations. He said the GOP must counteract this by "new concepts of political organization to create a flexible, creative, powerful unit encompassing the whole of our cities."

URGE DRASTIC OVERHAUL IN PUBLIC SCHOOL

By G. K. HODENFIELD AP Education Writer

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) - A drastic overhaul of public education, designed to raise the quality and eliminate the frills, was proposed today by a group of education experts.

They outlined suggested programs in mathematics, chemistry, english, social studies, foreign languages, biology and economics.

Some of the beefed-up courses are being taught in a few schools, others are in the planning stage. The proposals were made during the annual meeting of the Council of Chief State School Officers, an association of state commissioners and superintendents of schools.

G. Bailey Price, executive secretary of the Conference Board of the Mathematical Sciences, told of a Yale experiment in which intuitive geometry is introduced in the fourth grade, vectors in the eleventh grade, and matrix algebra and probability and statistical inference in the twelfth grade. Floyd Rinker of the College Entrance Examination Boards' Commission on English said the problem in his field is to bridge the gap between what is taught in high school and what is required in college.

George E. Smith of the Indiana State Department of Public Instruction called for a 10-year course in modern foreign languages, starting with all third grade pupils. Those who show aptitude and ability would continue the language through the twelfth grade.

LOS ANGELES (AP)-A com muter, his car keys jangling in his hand, stepped from his office building-and then stared aghast at the downtown streets. The city's buses and streetcars were idled by a strike. And on the streets where traffic normally flowed, cars stood bumper to bumper and curb to curb. Smog producing vapors poured from rumbling exhaust pipes. A few honked. Police whistles tooted.

But no cars moved. They couldn't. The reason: Too many of them

GETTING BUSY

Efforts to restore public transportation for 750,000 daily riders were under way on a dozen fronts. But both the striking Amalgamated Transportation Union and the struck Metropolitan and no immediate settlement appeared in prospect.

The strike was called by MTA mechanics Wednesday to enforce contract demands. Other MTA workers observed the mechanics' picket lines, and the one big transit system serving Los Angeles and three adjoining counties was paralyzed. Police broke up at least two fistfights that developed when carlot attendants, trying to save space for regular customers, angered motorists desperate for a place to park.

Judge Scolds Jury For Murder Verdict

LOS ANGELES (AP)-After a jury voted life imprisonment for sex murderer Raymond Clemmons, the court told seven women on the panel: "I can only hope that he will not meet any of you ladies some night in a dark place. Several of the women left the jury box Wednesday weeping. Superior Court Judge William E. Fox termed it "an extremely bad verdict."

He said 12 years was the average time served by life-termers. The jury foreman said the panel wasn't convinced the slaying was deliberate. Clemmons admitted abducting coed Nina T. Thoeren, 19. daughter of screen writer Robert T. Thoeren, from a street near Los Angeles City College last July 12. She was strangled with her Capri pants.

What Is That? Is It Really A Hat?

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON AP Newsfeatures Writer

Perhaps somebody else might have thought of making hats out of things looking like sprung bedsprings, barrel stays, halos, antlers, antennas, coiling snakes and mathematical formulas.

But an arty, whimsical New York matron did. Now Franny Whitney finds herself with "the logical millinery progression of the space age" on her hands, and on a lot of women's heads.

Her hats are made out of "trapped air," she says. Yet from the looks of her creations it would seem that air can enter and exit at will. The framework is all there is.

Guaranteed NOT to keep a girl's ears warm, these zany shapes nevertheless do wrap a coiffure, allowing fashionably bleached or jetted tresses to shine through in all their crown-

PRETTY NOTHINGS

The geometrical mobiles are prettily just so much nothing wrapped with bright velvet, sprinkled with rhinestones, and/or tagged at improbable places with perky bows, ostrich feathers, or cocky little birds.

"My hats were not meant to be worn to the supermarket," the tall, brown-haired divorcee says defensively, putting on a number that looked like the brim of a picture hat without the rest of it. "But they're simply marvelous for cocktail parties!'

The 40ish mother of a 16-yearold daughter who loves her hats ("What else can she say?") claims she has one foot in the hat world, the other in the art world. Recently her skeletical creations were exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum here, and last spring she confounded the Frenchmen with her American coiffure dis-

NO DOLLAR DAZE

"A French mathematician kept coming back to examine them. Then he told me, 'Do you realize those are perfectly designed in terms of the science of mathematics?

The whole idea threw Mrs. Whitney into a trauma. "If I'd known that. I'd never have been able to make them. I'm so stupid, they kicked me out of school." And the millinery designer rang a hefty sale on her cash register. But though Fanny Whitney didn't know the score academically, she has always done all right in the hat-making industry. Her mother told her she never did say "Ma-ma" or "Da-da" like ordinary infants. While still "Hat-hat!"

This has been all she has eve really needed to know.

Patrick Henry delivered his "Give me liberty or give me death" speech in St. John's Church in Richmond, Va.

Lawrence Tuesday gave an interim appointment to Mahood's job to G. Emerson Work, Smock, Fayette County, a dairyman and a Democrat. He also named John A. Smith, Dickinson, Cumberland County, to fill a vacancy on the commission. Smith and Simon K. Uhl. Somerset, a member since 1956, also are Democrats.

Confirmation of Work and Smith had been held up by the Republican-controlled State Senate, which adjourned Monday night, clearing the way for Lawrence to make in terim appointments.

OTHER APPOINTMENTS

In addition to the two milk com missioners, Lawrence named scores of persons to various jobs, including the Air Pollution Commission and the Securities Com-

Mahood contended he cannot be succeeded-even though his term expired last year-unless the Senate confirms his successor. He said an interim appointment is not "qualification" in the legal sense. He added, however, that "I don" think it has ever been determined by the court."

Meanwhile, a source close to Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern said an interim appointment is tantamount to qualification by the Senate. The source said the governor has the authority to make such appointments whether or not a post is vacant.

The milk control law reads, in part, that appointments shall be made by the governor:

. . By and with the advice and consent of two thirds of all the members of the Senate for terms of six years each and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified."

Until Tuesday's appointment the commission had been deadlocked between Uhl and Mahood with one post vacant. Earlier this year the division led to a delay in action on some milk pricing

Lawrence also made these appointments:
